

PROJECT RISE

A Program for Students Experiencing Homelessness

Teens / Unaccompanied Youth

Being homeless doesn't always mean living on the street or in a shelter. If you're living on your own, staying with friends or relatives, or just moving around a lot, Project Rise can help.

We provide resources and assistance that helps students stay on track in school and in life.

Understanding Your Rights

You may qualify for certain rights when it comes to your education. Project Rise can help you understand these rights and assist you with things like enrollment, attendance and transportation.

Help at School

As a Project Rise student, you will have access to an academic advocate. Advocates are assigned to specific schools and can check in with you on the days they're at your school. Advocates can also connect you with resources. To contact your assigned advocate, please call 330.761.3087.

Assistance and Resources

Project Rise has many partners who help our participants with food, clothing, shelter and other necessities.
